

Within the EunaCon Consulting Group, EunaCon Finance Solutions & Services Ltd. / EunaCon Certified Public Accountants provide services to foreign enterprises in China. Our clients include manufacturing, trading and service companies, in most cases with shareholders from the German speaking countries.

Our services include:

- Statutory year-end audit;
- Due diligence and business assurance as preparation for M&A or joint venture transactions;
- Long-term cooperation with existing clients in accounting and controlling business;
- Regular consulting and supervision of works done by clients' in-house accountants;
- Coordination of the financial reporting to shareholders/overseas management team;
- Tax consulting for VAT, business tax, corporate income tax and individual income tax issues;
- Project based services such as feasibility studies, special audits and financial due diligence.

As our business is expanding rapidly, we are now seeking a highly motivated

Senior Accountant
(Location: Pudong, Shanghai)

Responsibilities:

- Supervise the audit, accounting, reporting and tax tasks for our clients;
- Analyze clients requirements and propose appropriate solutions ;
- Independently conduct research and liaison with government authorities regarding specific problems related to regulatory and legal requirements;
- Act as project manager for clients;
- Supervise all kind of research and investigation in the financial area as required by our clients.

Requirements:

- Bachelor degree or above in Finance/Accounting or related subjects;
- Accounting Intermediate Certificate is a must, Certified Tax Agents (CTA) would be a plus;
- Minimum 5 years experiences in Accounting function, ideally from Accounting consulting firm;
- Working experience in a trading or manufacturing company is a plus;
- Excellent understanding of Chinese GAAP and all Chinese Laws of tax and financial fields including Chinese Foreign Exchange Regulations;
- Knowledge of German GAAP and/or IFRS would be an advantage;
- Knowledge of Chinese laws and regulations of employee compensation;
- Excellent oral and written English, German would be a plus;
- Proficient in Microsoft Office applications;
- Solid analytical and problem solving skills;
- Self-disciplined and motivated, open-minded, proactive, hands-on, and responsible for all the tasks assigned;
- Has team spirit and always in learning mode;
- Occasional travel is required.

Perspectives:

- Opportunity to grow with a foreign firm with a proven tracked record in Shanghai;
- Working with German specialists and superiors with extensive experience in Financial consulting field both home and abroad;
- Friendly atmosphere with reasonable working conditions.

Qualified candidates are welcome to send their English resume, cover letter and photo plus intention of remuneration to Mr. John Shi, john_shi@eunacon-hr.cn